Dr. Yvonne Bellay

Dr. Yvonne Bellay is the Animal Welfare Program Manager and a Staff Epidemiologist for DATCP-Animal Health.

In her position she has a variety of duties and responsibilities which include management of the Locally Appointed Humane Officer Training and Certification Program, serving as a resource to local authorities in animal welfare complaints and investigations, and management of the department's rabies and dog licensing programs. In addition, she deals with companion animal and zoonotic disease issues and serves as the division's public health liaison.

Dr. Bellay has worked on a number of legislative efforts including the passage of what is now Wis. Stat. Chapter 173 (Animals; Humane Officers) and changes in the Rabies Control Program.

Most recently she has worked tirelessly for the passage of Wisconsin Act 90, the Dog Seller's Legislation, and will serve as the manager of that program.

"Getting all these experts together in one place to help to educate humane groups is a terrific opportunity. We are entering into a new era of animal care in Wisconsin and this conference will help us as we move forward!"

Deb Lewis—President
Wisconsin Federated Humane Societies

Patricia Blaschka

Patti Blaschka has been in the property and casualty insurance industry for over 12 years. She has spent the majority of her time on the insurance company as a Commercial Underwriter and claims manager.

Patti's primary focus at Veitenhaus Insurance Services is aiding pet care businesses in the analysis and selection of their property and casualty insurance program and carrier.

Ms. Blaschka resides in Milwaukee and is very active in her community. She is the president of her condo board association and is a member of the Mitchell Field Rotary Club.

In her spare time, Patti supports local animal welfare organizations and their efforts within the community.

Kim Brown Pokorny

Kim Brown Pokorny is the Executive Director of the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association (WVMA) where she manages the association's government and regulatory agency affairs and serves as the organization's spokesperson. She is responsible for carrying out the mission and directives set forth by the organization made up of over 2,500 Wisconsin Veterinarians.

Ms. Brown Pokorny holds a master's degree in agriculture industries from UW-Platteville. She did her undergraduate work at UW-Platteville where she majored in animal science with a minor in agricultural economics.

In 2009, Kim was presented with UW-Platteville's Distinguished Alumni Award as well as the WI Veterinary Medical Association President's Award. She was honored as a Friend of World Dairy Expo in 2006.

Kim is very active in her community. She grew up on a Registered Brown Swiss farm in Monroe, WI. Currently Kim resides on a 26-acre diversified farm in Waupun with her husband and three children.

Danielle Thousand

Danielle Thousand has worked for the Certified Public Accounting Firm of Huberty & Associates for three years. The firm's main office is located in Fond du Lac with branch offices in Plymouth, Ripon, and Markesan, WI.

The firm specializes in tax planning and preparation for both businesses and individuals, audit services, payroll preparation, investment review, and computer/bookkeeping.

Huberty & Associates assists new businesses and organizations in setting up their books using computer programs that suit their needs. The firm also offers services in the areas of estate planning, sales and personal property tax reports, and business valuations.

In 2009, Huberty & Associates was recognized by Inc. Magazine as one of the 5,000 fastest-growing private companies in America. And in 2008, Fortune Magazine ranked Huberty & Associates as one of the Ten Most Dependable Firms in the Midwest for accounting services.

Ms. Thousand lives in Sheboygan with husband, Chris, who is the head baseball coach at Lakeland College. They have three children, 4 year-old daughter Taylee, 3 year-old daughter Tatum, and 1 year-old son Ty. Their family interests include sports and enjoying time together in Wisconsin's beautiful outdoors.
